Personal Math Trainer Enhancements

New Features to Improve Your Personal Math Trainer Experience

We're pleased to announce that new improvements were recently implemented for Personal Math Trainer® Powered by Knewton™ (PMT) in ThinkCentral. For detailed information, please refer to our Feature Release Guide.

Improved features and strategic updates in February 2017 include:

- New Tutorial Resources: Easy-to-follow videos and a detailed FAQ document are now available for frequently used tasks in Personal Math Trainer on ThinkCentral and HMH Player®. Learn how to create assignments, add adaptive flow to assignments, access quick reports, and more.
- Enhanced Knewton Analytics Reporting: The new "Class Proficiency Overview" report provides teachers with proficiency data in an easy-to-read format. Reports can be generated for classes or individual students across an entire course or for a particular module.
- Batch Printing in HMH Player®: Teachers can print reports for all students in a class at once from the HMH Player student assignments report screen.
